John Tierney remembers his first JCK Las Vegas show in 2002. "It was a pretty overwhelming experience," he says. "You could see the energy, the passion, the intensity, so it was pretty exciting." Shortly after college, he moved to the JCK show; about a decade after that, he took over the LUXURY and Swiss Watch portfolios. Now he can't imagine working for any other jewelry businesses, he says. "I feel like I'm a part of the industry."
